

The proposal of searching autos and passengers before boarding WA State Ferries as is done at our airports would pose an unreasonable burdon on citizens who must rely on the ferry system as part of the highway system. We commute to work, and to the mainland for goods